XLIV, ISSUE VI

ATTENTION:

Called Congregational
Meeting June 14 (immediately after the Drive-In service)

JUNE 2020 DRIVE-IN WORSHIP SERVICES

We will have Drive-In Worship Services every Sunday in June in the FAB parking lot. We will once again be sharing Holy Communion. We will use the pre-sealed wafers and grape juice again. If you cannot or choose not to partake of one of the elements, be assured of Christ's full presence under each element alone. If you do not feel comfortable coming to worship or receiving Communion, rest assured that Christ is with you, you are with us in Spirit, and we will have other opportunities to gather.

Here are some details about our Drive-in Service of Holy Communion:

- Enter the FAB parking lot via the Hanson Avenue entrance only.
- You will be handed a disposable plate with pre-sealed Communion elements for each communing person in your vehicle on it at the entrance. Hold on to these elements as we will commune together during the service. The package is double sealed—the wafer is under the top seal and the juice is under the bottom seal.
- Worship will begin at 9:30 AM. Prelude music will begin at 9:10 AM, 20 minutes prior to the start of the service.
- Set your radio to Radio station 98.1 FM when you arrive. The FM signal is short range, so you will need to be in the FAB parking lot to hear the service on the radio.
- We will have parking assistants to help guide you to a parking place.
- You are welcome to start your car or leave it running if necessary during the service. If you have a large vehicle, consider parking on a farther row back so that everyone will be able to see.
- You may leave the parking lot using all exits.

BULLETIN INFORMATION

You will need to print the bulletin at home; there will be no copies to hand out on Sunday. The bulletin will be posted on www.gslc.com by Thursday afternoon before the Drive-In services. We will also send a link to the bulletin via email by Thursday afternoon. A limited number of copies will be placed outside the church office on a table by Friday at noon.

GUIDELINES

The same guidelines and safety rules we observed in previous parking lot services will apply:

- No one (other than worship leaders and assistants) can get out of the car once you enter our property, either before, during, or after the service. No yard chairs.
- Please, no physical greeting from car to car.
- The playground is off limits and locked.
- Entry to the buildings will not be available (no restroom use).

If you do not feel comfortable coming out or are unable to come, be assured that our service will be posted on the church website by Sunday afternoon as usual and sermon manuscripts will still be mailed out to those who usually receive them.

A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.' – Luke 24:49

Jesus' first disciples had barely adjusted to the news that "he is risen" before Jesus ascended to the Father. His words in Luke 24:49 come right before he was taken up to heaven. The incredible good news of God's salvation was already being proclaimed among his disciples, but then they received some much harder news: "Wait." "Stay here."

This pattern is common in Scripture. Think, for example, of Noah. In Genesis 6 we learn that Noah and his family alone are to be spared from the flood event that will serve as God's cosmic do-over. Noah faithfully builds the ark, gathers the animals, and boards with his family just as the first drops start falling. Now we all know, Noah was onboard the ark for 40 days and 40 nights, right? Actually, it rained for 40 days and 40 nights. Water covered the earth for 150 days, Genesis tells us. And even after those 150 days when Noah's ark landed on Mt. Ararat, he had more months of waiting until the earth was dry enough to emerge again. Just when it seemed his hard work was done, the truly arduous task of waiting began.

Or consider the people of Israel whom God freed from slavery in Egypt. They must have thought their journey to freedom was near an end when they passed unharmed through the Red Sea and looked back to see Pharaoh and his troops swallowed up by the waves. But even as they stood and sang God's praises on the other side of the sea, they had no way of knowing that their arduous journey—40 years of wilderness wandering—was just beginning. More than that, if we consider the history of the Hebrew people and their descendants, we see that true freedom has been elusive even over centuries.

Indeed, the theme of waiting for God's salvation is a constant note in scripture.

Consider Genesis 49:18 — "I wait for your salvation, O LORD."

Or Psalm 27:14 — "Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the Lord!"

Or Psalm 130:5 — "I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in his word I hope."

There are numerous other passages from Psalms, Proverbs, and the Prophets that speak about waiting for God. Even in the New Testament, we are urged by Paul and other authors to wait patiently for God's coming salvation. For example, in Romans 8:25, we are told: "But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience."

Now is yet another time that God's people are called on to wait patiently for the Lord's salvation. Together, we are enduring a time of trial and difficulty. I know it is popular these days to say, "we are not all in this together" because some of us have a harder time than others. I would remind you that this is not true for the church. For we are indeed one body in Christ. If you are hurting, I am hurting. If the hand or the eye suffers, the whole body suffers. We are indeed in this together because we are one in Christ. During this pandemic, we are going through one of the toughest things any of us has ever had to endure.

And as tempting as it must have been for Noah to jump off the ark right away; as much as God's people longed to be in the Promised Land; as much as the disciples were eager to receive the Spirit and be led into all truth, it is tempting for us to rush back to business as usual. We are eager for normalcy, but we see throughout scripture that God shows up in the waiting time. God acts to save God's people in the wilderness, on the ark, in the locked upper room. We wait with hope and with the assurance that God will act to lead us, guide us, and save us.

We do not know if we have a 40 day wait or a 40 year wait or somewhere in between. Given the science of the situation, I'd say 40 days is much more likely than 40 years; somewhere in between is probably right. But what we do know is that God loves us, God will not leave us, and God will indeed act to save us yet again. We are indeed one body during this time and we trust in Christ, our head. We suffer together, we wait together, and we will be together to see the end of this time and to see a new revelation of God's abundant salvation.

God's peace be with you,
Pastor Andrew

SOCIAL MINISTRY FOCUS

SOCIAL MINISTRY EMPHASIS – Project HOPE, a program of the Richland County Sheriff's Department to get fans for needy elderly persons in the area, will continue as the Social Ministry Emphasis through June 7. Contributions can be sent to the church office any time until then. Checks should be made to Good Shepherd and designated for Project HOPE.

We will be doing our annual school supply drive in July. Watch for more information later.

FOOD PANTRY

The Food Pantry will no longer accept used plastic grocery bags from the congregation due to health concerns. Food pantry groceries will be filled in new plastic bags.

In order to restock our food pantry for the coming months when we are able to reopen, you are welcome to bring non-perishable food items to the Drive-In services. Place all items in a plastic grocery bag and hand it out your window to an assistant (who will be gloved and masked) on the way out of the parking lot. No loose items and no personal contact, please!

In February, food pantry volunteers packed and distributed 52 bags of groceries serving 226 individuals.

In March for 3 Wednesdays that the food pantry was open, food pantry volunteers packed 51 bags of groceries serving 197 individuals.

LEARNING COMMITTEE UPDATES VBS

With a heavy heart, the call was made to cancel VBS due to the pandemic. As heartbreaking as this is to cancel this special event that the children and our volunteers all love, it is our desire to keep everyone's safety and well-being as our top priority. GRACEWORKS will be done virtually this year and will be geared toward the whole family. Everyone is encouraged to participate. More information about Graceworks will be posted in our weekly church emails, and on our website as it becomes available.

VIRTUAL SUNDAY SCHOOL

Since we are unable to gather in-person just yet for Sunday school, Pastor Andrew will be teaching an online class on Zoom. There will be two class times offered. Wednesdays at 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Pastor Andrew will be discussing the Gospel lesson for the upcoming Sunday. A Zoom ID and password will be sent via email.

Children's virtual Sunday school will take a break for the month of June. Parents will be sent resources by email to use during this time.

High Schoolers are encouraged to check out Pastor Andrew's Wednesday virtual class.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Forrest Havird, 4808 Arcadia Road, Columbia, SC 29206

Forrest is member of the National Honor Society and graduating from AC Flora High School this year. He was baptized at Good Shepherd and has been an active member his whole life. This ranges from being active in YOGS to ushering and serving one year on church council. After high school he will be attending the University of South Carolina to study Psychology.

Jake Lalumondier, 1024 Whiteoak Ridge Road, Blythewood, SC 29016

Jake will be graduating on June 20 from Hammond School where he has attended since 4-year-old kindergarten. He is a member of the National Honor Society as well as the Hammond Wrestling Team. He had the honor of being a part of the back to back State Wrestling Championship Team at Hammond. He has been an active member of YOGS since middle school, attending the SCLCY conventions and the National Youth Gathering in Houston as well as serving as YOGS Chaplain and President. He is excited to be attending Wofford College in the fall.

Sam Seay, 217 Wild Cherry Road, Columbia, SC 29223

Sam Seay is a graduating senior from Spring Valley High School. Sam was a part of the Spring Valley High School baseball program from 7th grade all the way through his senior year. He also loved playing basketball in the Columbia Youth Basketball League throughout high school as well. Sam is a lifelong member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. He is thankful he was able to attend the National Youth Gathering in Houston as a part of the YOGS. Sam will be attending Clemson University as a part of the Bridge program, majoring in Business. Good Luck Sam, we love you!

Millie Sox, 32 Running Fox Road, Columbia, SC 29223

Millie will be attending Charleston Southern University in the fall. She has been accepted into the honors program and will be pursuing a major in biochemistry. She received several scholarships for her academic accomplishments and will graduate in the top 5% of her graduating class and has achieved the all-A honor roll for all but one semester. Over the past four years at Spring Valley High School, she won First Place for the Vision Science Award in the USC Region II Science & Engineering Fair and had her research published in a college-level academic journal. Millie lettered in varsity golf (3 years), and participated in the Latin Club and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She also engaged in numerous volunteer opportunities through her school and through Good Shepherd Church. Millie has been working at the Woodlands Country Club for the past year and a half.

Brock Tollison, 2928 Bagnal Drive, Columbia SC 29204

Brock Tollison will graduate from A.C. Flora High School on June 3. He is an International Baccalaureate Diploma recipient, Richland One High School Scholar, Richland One Academic All-Star and National Honor Society member. While at A.C. Flora, he was a math tutor, ran cross-country, played soccer and Ultimate Frisbee. He was admitted to the University of South Carolina as a Capstone Scholar. This fall he will attend the USC's College of Engineering and Computing with the intended major of Mechanical Engineering.

Christian Houghton, 416 Council Loop, Columbia, SC 29209

Christian Houghton is a graduating Senior of Lower Richland High School, and the current Drum Major of the LR Marching Band. From an early age, music has been an inspiration. His Confirmation Project was a reflection of his continued faith through music. In addition to playing his trumpet for GSLC holiday services, Christian performed in the Honors Performance Series at Carnegie Hall in 2016. He was invited back to the Series in 2019, playing in Australia at the Sydney Opera House. He was also recognized as a Legend in the Making this year by the Richland One School district for his achievements.

Christian will be attending Jackson State University in Mississippi this fall for Music Education, as well as performing with the Sonic Boom of the South Marching Band. He plans to return to the Richland One school district as a Music Teacher and Band Instructor.

COLLEGE GRADUATES

Lakyn Haigh, 2101 Monterey Court Columbia, SC 29206

Lakyn Haigh is a graduate from the University of South Carolina, where she obtained a Bachelor's of Science in Nursing. She will be working in the Columbia area as a nurse in the fall, where she will specialize in cardiac care. She has prospects of returning to school for a graduate degree after gaining nursing experience.

Emily Whitlow, 508 Athena Drive, Columbia, SC 29223

University of South Carolina
Bachelor of Arts in Music with a Minor in Religious Studies
Graduating Spring 2020

Future Plans: Pursuing a Master of Divinity from the Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in Columbia, SC in Fall of 2020. Plans to continue music through orchestral performances with the Aiken Symphony Orchestra, Columbia Chamber Orchestra, as well as playing with various groups based in SC, NC, and GA.

Emily had the pleasure of being involved in numerous roles at the University of South Carolina throughout her four years of studies. Through her involvement in the School of Music, she held positions in the university's ensembles, including the USC Symphony Orchestra, Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Winds, Chamber Group(s) as well as work with ensembles outside of USC including: the Aiken Symphony Orchestra, Columbia Chamber Orchestra, the Claflin University Orchestra in their performance of Handel's Messiah, the Bruch Chamber Orchestra, and Appalachia: A Southeastern Wind Symphony, along with others. While at USC, she was heavily involved with Greek Life in the School of Music, with membership in the national music fraternity for women, Sigma Alpha Iota where she held leadership roles (Recording Secretary, Editorial Committee, Fundraising Committee) and shared the importance of music with surrounding communities. She completed her Bachelor of Arts in Music under Rebecca Nagel with mentorship from Zac Hammond (Charleston, SC) and Petrea Warneck (Greenville, SC.) Following her undergraduate studies, Emily will be attending the Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary (LTSS) in Columbia, SC to pursue her Master of Divinity with classes beginning in late July of 2020. She looks forward to this new and called path and asks for continued prayers throughout her studies!

LECTIONARY FOR JUNE 2020

JUNE 7 – THE HOLY TRINITY

Though the word trinity is not found in the scriptures, today's second reading includes the apostolic greeting that begins the liturgy: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. In the gospel Jesus sends his disciples forth to baptize in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. More than a doctrine, the Trinity expresses the heart of our faith: we have experienced the God of creation made known in Jesus Christ and with us always through the Holy Spirit. We celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity in word and sacrament, as we profess the creed, and as we are sent into the world to bear witness to our faith.

FIRST READING – Genesis 1:1—2:4a

At the beginning of time, God the Creator, God the powerful Word, and God the life-giving Spirit form the earth and all its inhabitants. God sees that all this created work is good and then rests on the seventh day.

PSALM – Psalm 8

How majestic is your name in all the earth! (Ps. 8:1)

SECOND READING – 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Paul closes a challenging letter to the Corinthians with an appeal to Christian fellowship grounded in the triune harmony of Christ's grace, God's love, and the Spirit's partnership.

GOSPEL – Matthew 28:16-20

After his resurrection, Jesus summons his remaining disciples and commissions them to baptize and teach all nations in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

JUNE 14 – 2ND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Moses tells the Israelites that they are called to be a priestly kingdom and a holy people. Jesus sends out the disciples as laborers into the harvest. In baptism we too are anointed for ministry, sharing God's compassion with our needy world. From the Lord's table we go forth to proclaim the good news, to heal the sick, and to share our bread with the hungry.

FIRST READING – Exodus 19:2-8a

At Sinai God assured Israel, "You shall be my treasured possession," and commissioned them to serve as mediating priests for the nations. The people commit themselves completely to God's will.

PSALM – Psalm 100

We are God's people and the sheep of God's pasture. (Ps. 100:3)

SECOND READING – Romans 5:1-8

We are no longer God's enemies but have peace with God because we were brought into a right relationship with God through Christ's death.

GOSPEL – Matthew 9:35—10:8[9-23]

The mission of Jesus' followers is to continue the mission of Jesus himself. Here, he instructs his first disciples as to how they might proclaim the gospel through their words and deeds.

JUNE 21 – 3RD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

God does not promise that the path of the disciple will be easy. Jeremiah feels the pain of rejection from those who do not want to hear what he has to say. Jesus declares that his words may bring stark division. Even so, we need not be afraid for God accounts for each hair on our heads. Though we may experience rejection, frustration, division, and death, God's grace and love make us a new creation each day. Marked with the cross and filled with holy food, we are sent from worship to witness to Christ in the world.

FIRST READING – Jeremiah 20:7-13

Jeremiah accuses God of forcing him into a ministry that brings him only contempt and persecution. Yet Jeremiah is confident that God will be a strong protector against his enemies and commits his life into God's hands.

PSALM – Psalm 69:7-10 [11-15] 16-18

Answer me, O LORD, for your love is kind. (Ps. 69:16)

SECOND READING – Romans 6:1b-11

In baptism we were incorporated into the reality of Christ's death and resurrection. We have been made new in Christ through his death and resurrection to live freed from sin.

GOSPEL – Matthew 10:24-39

Jesus warns his disciples that their ministry in his name will meet with opposition. However, he assures them that they need not fear for the truth will come to light. Life is found in Christ.

JUNE 28 – 4TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

The welcome of baptism is for all God's children. This baptismal gift sets us free from the power of sin and death. In today's gospel, Christ promises that the disciple who gives a cup of cold water to the little ones serves Christ himself. From worship we are sent on our baptismal mission: to serve the little ones of this world and to be a sign of God's merciful welcome.

FIRST READING – Jeremiah 28:5-9

Through a symbolic action Jeremiah insisted that Judah and all the surrounding nations should submit to the king of Babylon (Jer. 27). Hananiah contradicted the word of Jeremiah, who in reply insisted that Hananiah's rosy prediction should not be believed until it came true. God confirmed the word of Jeremiah and sentenced the false prophet Hananiah to death (vv. 16-17).

PSALM – Psalm 89:1-4, 15-18

Your love, O LORD, forever will I sing. (Ps. 89:1)

SECOND READING – Romans 6:12-23

Sin is an enslaving power which motivates us to live self-serving, disobedient lives. Sin's final payoff is death. We, however, have been set free from sin's slavery to live obediently under God's grace, whose end is the free gift of eternal life.

GOSPEL – Matthew 10:40-42

When Jesus sends his disciples out as missionaries, he warns them of persecution and hardships they will face. He also promises to reward any who aid his followers and support their ministry.
